

Please do not change the Wisconsin Do Not Call List, unless it is to make the penalties for violating it more severe. I have been so pleased to have a quieter, calmer household since its inception. I have had only one company violate it in the two years I've been on the list. Thank you for your time.